INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an "estate" under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor's discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also must complete and file Form 104, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 104 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not presented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.

Plaintiff PETER EMANUEL KVASSAY complains and alleges as follows:

I. PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

2
3 1. At all times alleged herein, plaintiff PETER EMANUEL KVASSAY (“plaintiff”) was
4 a resident of the County of Los Angeles, California and the debtor in bankruptcy case no. 2:12-bk-
5 40267-PC.

8 2. Plaintiff as the debtor in bankruptcy case no. 2:12-bk-40267-PC filed for relief
9 pursuant to Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code on September 5, 2012 (the “case”).
10

12 3. At all times alleged herein, defendant ROBERT V. KVASSAY, TRUSTEE OF THE 13 KVASSAY FAMILY TRUST DATED FEBRUARY 26, 1993, acted as trustee of the Kvassay
14 Family Trust dated February 26, 1993 (“ROBERT”). At all times alleged herein, ROBERT, as 15 trustee of the Kvassay Family Trust dated February 26, 1993 (the “Trust”), administered the Trust in 16 the County of Los Angeles, California.
17

19 4. At all times alleged herein, defendant RUSSAKOW, GREENE & TAN, LLP was a
20 law firm practicing law and conducting business in the County of Los Angeles, California
21 (“RUSSAKOW, GREENE”). At all times alleged herein, RUSSAKOW, GREENE acted as the 22 attorneys of record for ROBERT in his capacity as trustee of the Trust.
23

25 5. This adversary proceeding arises out of the case and is brought by plaintiff for relief
26 pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(k)(1), 524(a)(1), 524(a)(2), and 105(a). This court has jurisdiction over
27 this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and 11 U.S.C. § 362. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.
28

II. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6. On September 5, 2012, plaintiff filed a Chapter 7 petition. On the same day, September 5, 2012, plaintiff was scheduled to appear as a party at an evidentiary hearing in the probate court in Los Angeles County Superior Court case BP 122477 (the “evidentiary hearing”). The evidentiary hearing was scheduled on the basis of a so-called “Motion to Release Bond to Petitioner” filed by ROBERT on June 26, 2012, in which ROBERT sought an order “releasing” a cash deposit of $216,000 made in lieu of an appeal bond (the “bond motion”). The cash deposit of $216,000 had been posted in October, 2010, by a third party on behalf of debtor and his brother Richard Stephen Kvassay (“RICHARD”) to stay enforcement of an appeal of an order evicting debtor and RICHARD from real property owned by the Trust (the “appeal bond”).

7. At the outset of the evidentiary hearing, plaintiff’s counsel gave the probate court and RUSSAKOW, GREENE written and oral notice of plaintiff’s Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing, including a copy of the written notice of plaintiff’s bankruptcy filing issued by the bankruptcy court clerk. Plaintiff’s counsel’s written notice of plaintiff’s Chapter 7 case given to the probate court and RUSSAKOW, GREENE prior to the evidentiary hearing stated in pertinent part as follows:

“[¶] Respondent[] PETER E. KVASSAY ... hereby give[s] notice that
[his] ... Chapter 7 bankruptcy proceeding[] precludes any state court

1 action to enforce any pre-petition bankruptcy claim against ... [him].
2 The claim[] presently being asserted against respondent[] on an appeal
3 bond¹ [is a] pre-petition bankruptcy claim[], as defined in 11 U.S.C.
4 § 101(5), because the claim[] arose no later than October 7, 2010, the 5 date on which the appeal bond was posted, which date was prior to the 6 date on which ... respondent filed his presently pending Chapter 7
7 bankruptcy proceeding. Consequently ... debtor's Chapter 7
8 bankruptcy proceeding precludes any state court action to enforce any 9 claim against ... respondent on the appeal bond. Any state court
10 action to enforce any pre-petition bankruptcy claim against ...
11 respondent on the appeal bond interferes with the jurisdiction of the 12 bankruptcy court to order a discharge of pre-petition bankruptcy claims
13 asserted against ... respondent.

14 “[¶] ... respondent hereby gives notice that if any state court action
15 is taken against him to enforce any claim against him on the appeal
16 bond, respondent will immediately seek the protection of the 17 bankruptcy court in precluding any state court action to enforce any 18 pre-petition bankruptcy claim against him on the appeal bond [the 19 ‘bankruptcy notice’].”

21
22
23
24
25
26
27 In response to the bankruptcy notice, RUSSAKOW, GREENE stated on the record that, “What we’ve

28 ¹ The appeal bond stayed enforcement of an order filed by the Probate Court on August 18, 2010.

1 been handed is an unconfirmed, noncertified [sic] document.” On September 5, 2012, the probate
2 court held the evidentiary hearing based on the bond motion at which ROBERT presented and the 3 probate court considered evidence of plaintiff’s use and occupancy of real property owned by the 4 Trust. Plaintiff, on the advice of counsel, did not appear at the evidentiary hearing.
5

7 8. At the conclusion of the evidentiary hearing the probate court acknowledged that
8 plaintiff’s bankruptcy petition had been filed prior to the evidentiary hearing and advised the parties
9 that it would defer its ruling on the bond motion pending the status of any effort by ROBERT to 10 obtain relief from plaintiff’s bankruptcy stay. The probate court advised the parties that it would
11 keep possession of the parties’ exhibits “pending [its] ruling.”
12

14 9. On September 28, 2012, ROBERT, represented by RUSSAKOW, GREENE, filed a
15 motion for relief from the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362 (the “stay”) in which he sought relief
16 from the stay to proceed against plaintiff in case BP 122477 (the “probate action”) and Los Angeles
17 County Superior Court case BC 473480 (the “civil action”) (the “motion for relief from stay”). The 18 probate action was filed on May 7, 2010; the civil action was filed on November 16, 2011. The 19 motion for relief from stay sought an order “[a]llowing Movant to proceed under applicable non-
20 bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to proceed to final judgment in the non-bankruptcy forum, 21 provided that the stay remains in effect with respect to enforcement of any judgment against
22 Debtor(s) or estate property.” According to a declaration attached to the motion for relief from stay
23 signed by ROBERT, the “causes of action pleaded in the non-bankruptcy forum” were “[1] Specific 24 Power to Evict Tenant from Trust Property; [2] To Determine Working Plan Has No Legal Bearing;
25 [3] To Determine Ownership of Trust Property; and [4] Request to Offset Distributive Share (BP
26
27
28

1 122477); Complaint 1-7 (BC473480).” In support of the motion for relief from stay, RUSSAKOW,
2 GREENE attached a declaration in which it acknowledged that it had been served with notice of
3 plaintiff’s bankruptcy prior to the evidentiary hearing and the probate court “held the evidentiary
4 hearing and took testimony” on September 5, 2012.
5

7 10. The motion for relief from stay attached the petition filed in the probate action as 8 “Exhibit A.” According to ROBERT’S declaration attached to the motion for relief from stay one of 9 the “causes of action pleaded in the non-bankruptcy forum” is a “Request to Offset Distributive
10 Share.” ROBERT’S petition attached as “Exhibit A” to the motion for relief from stay alleges from 11 paragraphs 29 through 32 that: (1) pursuant to California Probate § 850, ROBERT has a $1.5 million
12 claim against plaintiff based on an alleged fraudulent loan obtained by plaintiff that “was secured by 13 Trust property;” and (2) pursuant to California Probate § 859, plaintiff may be liable for “twice the 14 value of the property recovered [in the probate] action [emphasis original].” ROBERT’S petition
15 attached as “Exhibit A” to the motion for relief from stay further alleges in paragraph 33 that:
16

19 “The trustee requests that Peter’s distributive share be offset in excess 20 of $1,500,000.00 plus attorney’s fees and costs based on his
21 malfeasance acts, including fraud against the estate and his willful acts 22 to thwart completion of construction, list the property for sale, and 23 distribute the assets. If the $1,500,000 amount exceeds his entire 24 distributive share, the Trustee requests that Peter be personally liable
25 for the remaining amount that he fraudulently obtained [the ‘probate
26 petition’].”
27
28

1 The prayer in the probate petition requests the probate court to “charge twice the value of property
2 recovered against Peter Kvassay in punitive damages” and “offset Peter Kvassay’s distributive share
3 of the estate for $1,500,000 and deem him personally liable for an amount in excess of his full
4 distributive share...[the ‘probate claim’].”

7 11. On October 17, 2012, plaintiff filed an opposition to the motion for relief from stay.
8 The Chapter 7 trustee, Timothy Yoo (the “bankruptcy trustee”), did not oppose the motion.
9

11 12. On October 24, 2012, ROBERT represented by RUSSAKOW, GREENE filed a reply
12 to plaintiff’s opposition to the motion for relief from stay in which RUSSAKOW, GREENE again
13 acknowledged that plaintiff filed his bankruptcy petition on September 5, 2012, prior to the 14 evidentiary hearing and “the probate Court proceeded with the evidentiary hearing, but withheld on 15 its ruling until there is a relief from the bankruptcy stay.”
16

18 13. On November 1, 2012, the Court considered ROBERT’S motion for relief from stay
19 and ordered the stay was lifted on the following conditions: (1) ROBERT join the bankruptcy trustee
20 as the real party in interest in case BP 122477 and case BC 473480; and (2) ROBERT not take any 21 action to enforce any state court judgment without a further order of the court.

24 14. On November 1, 2012, shortly after the hearing in this Court on ROBERT’S motion
25 for relief from stay, the probate court held a status conference concerning the status of ROBERT’S
26 effort to obtain an order lifting the stay in plaintiff’s bankruptcy case. RUSSAKOW, GREENE
27 advised the probate court that this Court had granted relief from the stay based on two conditions:
28

1 “[1] the bankruptcy trustee be joined as a party to both the BP and BC
2 cases and, [2], that no enforcement of any orders against the debtors,
3 well, the debtor in this case, may go forward without further relief from

7 RUSSAKOW, GREENE clarified its understanding of this Court’s conditional order granting relief
8 from stay by stating, “money judgments against debtor Peter Kvassay, we cannot take any 9 enforcement action of those orders pending further relief from the stay from the bankruptcy court.”
10

12 15. At the status conference on November 1, 2012, plaintiff’s counsel advised the probate
13 court and RUSSAKOW, GREENE that the evidentiary hearing had been held in violation of the 14 bankruptcy stay “because the bankruptcy trustee, as the real party in interest, did not have an 15 opportunity to appear in that action and act on behalf of the debtor.” Conversely, RUSSAKOW, 16 GREENE advised the probate court that “there was no stay in effect because no proper notice of the 17 bankruptcy had been served” and that plaintiff’s counsel’s notice of plaintiff’s bankruptcy filing on 18 September 5, 2012, was “oral lip service.” RUSSAKOW, GREENE further advised the probate court
19 that, “[i]t was an unconformed [sic] copy of a document that we received. So there was no
20 violation.” Finally, RUSSAKOW, GREENE advised the probate court that any argument concerning 21 a violation of the stay was “completely up to the bankruptcy trustee to make that argument.” The 22 probate court advised the parties that:
23

25
26 “what I’m happy to do is continue the matter for the trustee to be joined.
27

28 If the trustee would like to take additional -- present any additional

1 evidence or take any additional testimony, I'll give him that
2 opportunity and then I'm prepared to rule and that way he's not
3 precluded, although I do understand procedurally what you're saying,
4 that the notice wasn't good and that the stay perhaps wasn't in effect.
5 But I'd rather cure any defect to address that and give you a chance to 6 be heard if you would like to be."
7

10 16. On November 16, 2012, this Court entered the order granting relief from stay in which 11 it ordered that ROBERT "may proceed in the non-bankruptcy forum to final judgment (including any 12 appeals) in accordance with applicable non-bankruptcy law." The order granting relief from stay
13 states that the stay is terminated "subject to conditions set forth below" and that "The court
14 conditions this relief from stay on movant's compliance with the following:
15

- 17 "1. The movant is to join the bankruptcy trustee as the real party in 18 interest in both state court proceedings; and 19
20 "2. The movant may not take any action to enforce any state court
21 judgment without further order of the court [the 'conditional
22 order granting relief from stay']."
23
24

25 17. On December 4, 2012, ROBERT, represented by RUSSAKOW, GREENE, filed a
26 "Notice of Motion for Joinder of the Bankruptcy Trustee for Peter Kvassay" in the probate court (the 27 "joinder motion"). In the joinder motion ROBERT sought an "order joining Peter Kvassay's
28

1 bankruptcy trustee, Timothy Yoo ... as a real party in interest ... on the grounds that: (1) On
2 November 1, 2012, the Bankruptcy Court ordered that Peter Kvassay's bankruptcy trustee be joined
3 as a real party in interest ... and (2) Peter Kvassay's bankruptcy trustee is, therefore, an indispensable
4 and necessary party since the Trust is listed as an asset of the Bankruptcy Estate [the 'joinder
5 motion']. In the joinder motion ROBERT asserted that:

7
8 "At the November 1, 2012 hearing of Robert's Motion for Relief from 9 Stay, the Bankruptcy Court granted relief from stay, effective
10 immediately, but imposed two conditions: (1) Robert must join the 11 Bankruptcy Trustee as a party to this action; and (2) Robert must not
12 take enforcement actions without further order of the bankruptcy court
13 [italics added]."

15
16
17 In the joinder motion ROBERT also asserted that "the Bankruptcy Court on November 1, 2012
18 ordered that Robert join Peter's bankruptcy trustee as a party to ensure that Peter's bankruptcy estate
19 was represented in these proceedings ..." and that "as the Bankruptcy Court has already determined,
20 Peter's bankruptcy trustee should be joined as a party since the trustee would have authority over
21 Peter's interest, if any, in the Trust."

24 18. On December 10, 2012, ROBERT filed a declaration prepared by RUSSAKOW,
25 GREENE and signed by the bankruptcy trustee, dated December 10, 2012, in which the bankruptcy
26 trustee states in pertinent part, "I do not object to the joinder requested herein" and,
27
28

1 “... I have no intention of making a claim to the bond monies at issue
2 herein, nor are there any pending proceedings in this matter which I
3 foresee participating in, including the pending trial. I do not object
4 to the Superior Court continuing its proceeding in my absence
5 [italics added] [the ‘trustee’s declaration’].”
6

8 19. On December 12, 2012, the probate court held a status conference at which 9 RUSSAKOW, GREENE presented the trustee’s declaration to the court and represented to the court
10 that the bankruptcy court had granted relief from the stay effective as of the time of the hearing on 11 ROBERT’S motion for relief from stay on November 1, 2012. RUSSAKOW, GREENE advised the 12 probate court that,
13

15 “what the bankruptcy court had ordered was that the stay was lifted
16 immediately but put two conditions on it. The court did not require 17 that we have those conditions in place before lifting the stay. It was 18 immediate [italics added].”
20

21 Plaintiff’s counsel advised the probate court that compliance with the conditional order granting relief
22 from stay required more than a declaration signed by the bankruptcy trustee stating that the trustee
23 had “no interest in appearing as the real party in interest on behalf of the debtor.” The probate court
24 advised the parties that,
26
